

Call for application

Grant Research Proposal Indonesia Training 2022

"Translating Your Research Idea"

The German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD), the DIES ProGRANT Coordination Office at the University of Cologne, and jointly co-ordinated team from Udayana University, Institut Teknologi Sepuluh Nopember and Institut Teknologi Bandung are organizing Grant Research Proposal Indonesia Training (GRIT) 2022: a proposal writing training for national & international research grants. We believe that "grit" is a fundamental key to success in every life aspect. Thus, we hope that through the grit of each participant, this training will lead to achieve a successful academic career.

Important dates

Benefits

- No fee for the whole training
- Hotel, meals and local transport during Seminar 1 covered
- Certificate
- By the end of the training, all participants will have grant proposal ready for submission

Application documents

- Brief 1-page resumé of the current academic CV
  - Personal and institutional commitment letter
- Exposé outlining your intended research project (max. 2 pages, approx. 5000 characters)

Selection criteria

- Indonesian researcher
- Holding a PhD degree for less than 3 years or currently studying a doctoral degree
- Maximum 50 years old
- Affiliated to an Indonesian academic or research institution
- Preferably at the beginning or middle stages of their research career

LIMITED FOR 20 SEATS
ONLY!

Guideline, document templates and registration link:
https://bit.ly/GRIT2022\_registration

Trainers

co-organized by

ITS
Institut
Teknologi
Sepuluh Nopember

Any further inquiries, please contact:
nadirap@student.unud.ac.id